

Pietro Sacchi

Laureato in Ingegneria Gestionale presso il Politecnico di Milano.

Since the time he joined Citi as stageur back in 1998, following a couple of working experiences in the Italian fashion industry, Pietro has been based in Milan.

After having covered a variety of roles within the Corporate and Investment Bank division, Pietro is now responsible for the cash sales activities to all the Italian Corporate and Public Sector names.

In addition to his sales role, with the purpose to support the continued growth of the Italian Treasury & Trade domestic franchise, Pietro maintains a strategic market advisory role focusing, for the Italian cash product business, on areas such as evaluation of corporate and public sector client demand, competitive market landscape, specific regulatory country needs and on proposing the most effective development strategy for the Italian domestic cash product solutions. Pietro has recently focused in securing INPS (Italian major pension agency)'s mandate to Citibank, N.A. Milan for the management of their cross border payment services. Pietro Sacchi has been junior fellow member of Aspen Institute Italy.