

Bruno Koch

Bruno Koch was active as Management Consultant with PricewaterhouseCoopers for 8 years. Afterwards, he was in a management position during 4 years for Credit Suisse. From 1997 to 1999, he established the e-Invoicing service SIX PayNet in the Swiss market. In 1999 he founded his own company BILLENTIS. In his main activity, he is an independent consultant. Among the more than 130 customers in 31 countries are several banks, service providers and large issuers and recipients of invoices.

Bruno Koch is also a member of international working groups, market analyst, author of several publications, issuer of a market report and newsletter and organizer of the leading international congress for E-Invoicing.