

Boudewijn Dierick

Boudewijn joined BNP Paribas in December 2006 to reinforce ABS and covered bonds structuring efforts into various European markets, with a focus on northern Europe and other selected Eastern-European markets.

Boudewijn joined from UBS where he was a director in the Securitisation team, responsible for covered bond structuring and RMBS in Northern Europe.

He joined UBS from Moody's, where he was as Vice President/Senior Analyst responsible for rating RMBS, Covered Bonds in Benelux, France and the Nordic countries.

He also worked on various RMBS transactions in Emerging Markets. Before Moody's, Boudewijn worked in Corporate Banking at ING in Paris. He has a masters degree in finance from the Vrije Universiteit in Amsterdam.

Boudewijn is currently lead structurer on CB-programs in Belgium and the Netherlands and also led the structuring of BNP Paribas Public Sector SCF.
