

Filippo Pingue

Is a senior partner in our financial markets practice and is based in our Rome office. His main practice areas are debt capital markets and structured finance, with a particular focus on principal finance, securitisations and banking.

Filippo has been involved on a number of high profile banking and structured finance transactions, advising major national and international banks.

He is also a trust advisor for a number of Italian regional and local authorities.

He is regularly mentioned in the most prestigious legal guides among the Italian leading lawyers in the field of banking and financial law.