

Giulia Marini

Giulia Marini is currently the head of operational risk management at UBI Banca, a leading Italian banking group created in 2007 through the merger of Banca Lombarda e Piemontese with cooperative Banche Popolari Unite. She joined Banca Lombarda e Piemontese in August 2001 to develop the group's operational risk management framework consistent with Basel II Advanced Measurement Approach (AMA). Before that, Giulia Marini spent many years at Ernst & Young in Brescia, where she held numerous positions before being made senior manager in charge for auditing jobs. In 2004 she received from the Operational Risk Achievement Awards framed certificate as Highly Commended Bank for the category "Small-to-medium size bank operational risk framework". She is a Certified Public Accountant and a Certified Auditor. She holds a honours degree in Economics from Bocconi University and an MBA, in Business Administration from Clemson University (South Carolina-USA).