

Pierfrancesco Cocco

Pierfrancesco Cocco is head of Wealth Risk Management in Monte dei Paschi di Siena Banking Group.

He has been involved in risk management for the last twenty years, first in Sanpaolo Group and for the last ten years in Monte Paschi Group. During this last period, he was in charge of the Risk Management Department till 2006 when he moved to the new responsibility of developing an integrated risk management framework entirely dedicated to the financial instruments and portfolios held by the customers of the Group, compliant to the MiFID supervisory regulation and aimed at preventing reputational risk.

After graduating in Economics, he earned a Master degree in Economics at the University of Western Ontario, Canada.