

Diego Caputo

Is the Country Manager of Italy in TRASSET, a multinational company headquartered in Milan, providing worldwide banking solutions focused on Treasury, Asset & Wealth Management, Corporate banking and Credit management, General Ledger and Mandatory Reporting.

After his degree in Business Administration at the Bocconi University in Milan on 2000, he started his professional career in Brainpower, a multinational Netherlands-based public company, specialized in developing financial analytics for Asset Management and Private Banking.

With the role of Head of Consulting he left Brainpower on 2006 to join the Swiss branch of Bloomberg LP, the global leading news and data provider as Manager of Financial Specialists. In 2007 he has been appointed as Global Business Manager of the Funds product within the Bloomberg Professional service, one of the fastest-growing real-time financial information network in the world.

On 2009 he joined TRASSET with the goal of developing the business in the country of the company's headquarters and supporting the international expansion.

Since 2010 he is a member of the Management Board of the company.