

Breve Biografia del Relatore

Rony Hamaui is managing director of Mediofactoring the leading factoring company in Italy. He is Vice President at Assifact and a member of the executive committee of “EUFederation”. He is also a lecturer at Università Cattolica del Sacro Cuore (Milan).

He is a graduate of Bocconi University and London School of Economics and Political Science. He was Chief Manager at Banca Intesa responsible for Financial Institutions. This included: 1) Financial Relationship (with all financial Institutions world-wide); 2) Transaction Services (payments and correspondent banking; securities custody and clearing services; liquidity and collateral management); 3) Trade & Export Finance; 4) International Banking Network (which comprised the responsibility for all the foreign branches, representative offices & the corporate banks;). He formerly headed the Economic Research Department of Banca Commerciale Italiana and was a lecturer at Università di Bergamo, Università Commerciale L. Bocconi and a research assistant at the Institute for Social Research. He was member of the board of Société Européenne de Banque– Luxembourg, ZAO Banca Intesa– Moscow, Montetitoli and EBA Clearing and EBA Association for several years. He has published articles and books mainly in international economics and finance.