

Breve Biografia del Relatore

Carlo Messina (Roma, 1962) is the Chief Financial Officer of Intesa Sanpaolo. He was appointed to the post in June 2008. A graduate of Economics and Business from the Luiss University of Roma, he began his professional career in the Finance department of Banca Nazionale del Lavoro in 1987 rising to the position of Manager in charge of Corporate Finance in 1990. While developing his professional career, he carried out intense academic activities as Professor of Economics of Financial Intermediaries at the Business Administration Master of the Luiss School of Management and Professor of Corporate Finance at the Faculty of Economics and Business of Ancona. In 1995 he joined Banco Ambrosiano Veneto as Manager in charge of the Planning Department. He held important positions through different integration stages: Head of Planning and Research and of the Control department within Intesa BCI; Head of the Planning and Control department and Head of the Risk Management department within Banca Intesa; Head of the Value

Creation Governance in Intesa Sanpaolo until June 2008. He currently sits on the Boards of Directors of Fondo Interbancario di Tutela dei Depositi, of Banca Prossima and of Intesa Sanpaolo Group Services.