

Steve Sahara

Managing Director

Global Head of DCM Solutions and Hybrid Capital Debt & Credit Markets

- Steve Sahara is Global Head of DCM Solutions and Hybrid Capital at Credit Agricole Corporate & Investment Bank with a primary focus on major banks, insurance companies and corporate issuers worldwide.
- Steve began his investment banking career in 1991 at Merrill Lynch and has successfully worked in a senior role managing the global hybrid capital and preferred stock origination and structuring efforts for leading firms such as Morgan Stanley, Lehman Brothers and ABN AMRO. At Credit Agricole CIB, Steve is also responsible for capital structure optimization solutions via liability management techniques.
- Steve has contributed greatly to the continued growth and evolution of this dynamic asset class. Steve earned his B.S.C. and M.Acc. degrees at DePaul University, MBA Finance at the University of Chicago and is a CPA (Illinois). He is the author of three books: “Hybrid Capital Securities: A Definitive Guide For Issuers and Investors”, “The Future of Bank Capital and Funding” and the forthcoming “Next Generation Hybrid Securities and Capital Structure Evolution” available from Thomson Reuters as part of the IFR Market Intelligence Series.