

Alessandro Zollo

From 1983 he works at the Italian Banking Association (ABI).

In the first years of his professional life he worked on computer security, software quality, and innovation technologies.

From December 2000 he is in charge with the activities of the “Coordination Committee for infrastructures of e-banking” that, within ABI, works on the realization of some projects regarding payment systems throughout the Internet and mobile phones. Currently he is the Secretary of the Committee.

From September 2005 he also assumed the charge of Secretary General of COGEBAN –which has been transformed in Consortium BANCORMAT., from July 2008

The Consortium manages the services of BANCORMAT and PagoBANCORMAT (30 millions of cards; 41 thousands ATM; 1,3 millions of POS) and regulates several activities such as: control and analysis of electronic payments market, innovative channels for banking payments and services; realization and management of technical infrastructures and platforms for payment cards; advising on processes and circulation of payment cards.

Within ABI he is the head of Retail Payment Systems and Services Department.

The task of the Department is to promote the development of Associates business in the area of the services and payment systems.

From November 2007 he is a Member of the EAPS Board of Directors, the Euro Alliance Payment Scheme; moreover, in ABI representation, he takes part in some International Bodies such as PC, EMV, VISA, etc.

Office positions:

ABI: Head of Retail Payment Systems and Services Department

Consortium BANCORMAT: Secretary General

e-Committee: Secretary

EAPS: Board Member