

Camille Dümm

Camille Dümm has a master in Business Engineering from the Solvay Business school of Management of Brussels.

She is working at the National Bank of Belgium as Business Analyst for the Central Balance Sheet Office. She is responsible of the development of the Belgian taxonomy for non financial companies and involved in the Working group set up within the Belgian jurisdiction to harmonize the use of XBRL among the regulators.