

ALESSANDRO SETTEPANI

Senior Director

Alessandro Settepani is senior director and head of the Southern Europe Covered Bonds team in London. Previously, he was head of the Italian structured finance group in Milan.

Alessandro is author of a number of publications regarding the Italian securitisation market such as “The Italian Leasing Index,” “Italian Health Care Receivables Securitisation Criteria,” “Consumer Securitisation in Italy,” and “The Italian SME CDR Model”.

Before joining Fitch in August 2002, Alessandro worked for 10 years in the banking supervision department of the Bank of Italy. He specialized in the analysis of Italian banks, the validation of market risk management systems and credit risk management systems of Italian banks.

Alessandro holds a Laurea in political science from Università la Sapienza in Rome, Italy and an MSc in international banking and finance from the University of Reading, UK.