

Elena joined Barclays Capital securitisation and covered bond structuring team in January 2006. She has worked on structuring Italian and Greek securitisation transactions covering various assets classes including: residential mortgages, consumer loans and trade receivables. More recently, she has been primarily focused on structuring Greek and Italian Covered Bond Programmes; in particular she worked on the establishment of the first Greek direct and indirect covered bond programmes as well as on the first Italian multiseller Obbligazioni Bancarie Garantite Programme.

Before joining Barclays Capital she worked for one year in the Financial Markets Team at Barclays Bank PLC. Prior to that, she spent four years with the Italian Securitisation Team at Deloitte Consulting in Milan.

Elena has a degree in Economics and Accounting from Università Cattolica (Milan) and is fluent in English and Italian.
