

Francesco Dissera is an Executive Director within the European Securitisation Group at UBS and he is responsible for ABS in Southern Europe and emerging market. He has been at UBS since December 2000 where he joined after three years with JP Morgan. Francesco graduated with Honours in Economics from the University of Bologna and got his Masters in International Finance at the University of Pavia.

Francesco is one of the most experienced Italian securitisation structurers having worked on more than 30 securitisations of performing mortgages, leasing and non performing loans originated by Southern European Banks