MICHELE CUNEO

Senior Director

Michele Cuneo is a senior director in Fitch Ratings' European structured finance group in Milan. He has been working with Fitch since 2003 as primary analyst of Italian covered bonds and securitization deals, covering a number of asset classes, from consumer loans to loans to small and medium enterprises. He is currently Fitch's primary point of reference on Italian residential mortgage-backed securities (RMBS) as well as coordinator of the RMBS rating activities in Spain, Germany, France, and Belgium.

Before joining Fitch, Michele spent four years at Citigroup as junior transactor in the European Securitisation Team in London and as Credit Analyst in Milan, with a particular focus on the Italian market.

Michele graduated with a degree in Economics from Luigi Bocconi University in Milan and spent a period of study at Wirtschaftsuniversität in Vienna.
