

Global Capital Markets Company Description

For more than a century, Wilmington Trust has been a leader in corporate trust services, serving on some of the largest and highest profile transactions. We have capabilities in some of the world's most attractive jurisdictions, and develop customized solutions, pairing technology and disciplined, tenured staff. As a trusted provider, due to our non-creditor role in transactions, we are able to act as a neutral, impartial Trustee or Agent, taking a creative and collaborative approach to achieving a successful transaction.
